Go Bananas - Go Yellow Competition

March 2018

We are offering a new and exciting competition for the 2018 Festival – we want to ‘paint the town yellow’ figuratively speaking.

The aim of the competition is to have all Innisfail businesses decorate their street frontages / windows in yellow – with the intention of those driving through town asking “What is happening here?”

Whilst being a promotion for the Feast of the Senses this will raise the profile of the region and remind everyone that we are the holders of the Guinness World Records Longest Banana Split.

It’s FREE to enter and for only $10 we can supply a starter pack of yellow items and decorations to be used, just to get you started – if you wish.
